

JOHN ALEXANDER DOWIE DIED SATURDAY MORNING AT HOME IN ZION CITY

Aged Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church
Had Been in State of Dissolution
For Months

WAS SHUNNED BY HIS FORMER FOLLOWERS

And at the Time of His Death His Sole Comforter Was a Negro Guard--Prophet Was Bankrupt
When He Died.

Chicago, March 9.—John Alexander Dowie, erstwhile overseer of the "Christian Catholic church," died at 8 o'clock this morning at Zion City, Ill., the city he had founded on the north shore of Lake Michigan. His passing away was not entirely unexpected. The aged leader of the Zion sect had been in a state of dissolution for months. Beaten in his later years for control of the great properties he had originated the prophet failed to recover his old time physical strength.

John Alexander Dowie was a Scotchman. He has been secretive about his origin in an obvious effort to prepare his followers for some announcement of immaculate conception. His father, an aged Scotchman, appeared here after Dowie reached his zenith and proclaimed his relationship. The "apostle" denied the old man's claims upon him, it is charged, and refused to provide for his material welfare.

From Scotland Dowie went to Australia. He lived there as an itinerant evangelist. Reports are that he was fined $100 and served a term of imprisonment in that country for the results of "divine healing" methods which afterwards caused the death of many persons in this country without the benefit of medical attention. In 1888 he landed in San Francisco with a capital of $100 in his pocket. In 1890 he came to Chicago and preached on the streets. He rented a small room in Evanston and began "divine healing." His followers multiplied rapidly. Two years later he opened a larger mission at Stoney Island avenue, and 63d street. Small donations grew to large gifts. Those who fell entirely under the power of the magnetic old man transferred real estate to him so liberally that within four years he was rich. He established a bank and started a "divine" healing newspaper, the "Leaves of Healing." In 1900 he purchased the site of Zion City, 660 acres of the finest land on the lake front of Lake county. Ten thousand enthusiasts who accepted Dowieism joined his colony.

The numbers have since dwindled to 3800. Factories, stores, administration buildings and residences sprang up and the prairie was transformed into a model small city.

He declared himself to be Elijah III, or Elijah the Restorer. He suggested the idea of immaculate conception, but withdrew it when he found his followers were not prepared to accept it.

During the past six years Dowie has received millions in contributions, maintained a private yacht, toured the world and used more money than the profligate King Leopold. He obtained an option on a tract of 700,000 acres of land in Mexico for a colonization scheme. Before he could carry out his plans he was stricken with paralysis, the affliction, it is charged by his enemies being due to practices contrary to his supposed priestly character. If his enemies are to be believed he has led the dual life of an apostle in Zion and a licentiate and voluptuary. In a moment in which he was guided to that of his countless followers, Dowie signed a full power of attorney authorizing Wilbur Glenn Voliva, his deputy general overseer, to make disposal of his real and personal property. The act was to empower Voliva to lease lots in Zion City to new converts during Dowie's absence in Mexico. Voliva availed himself of the opportunity to expropriate Dowie, and he claims, to place Zion properties where the members of the church to whom they rightfully belong may obtain their rights.

Ms. Jeannie Dowie, or as she is known to outsiders, Jane Dowie, joined Voliva who is also aided by Dowie's son, J. Gladstone Dowie.

"COWARD"

Is Major Penrose's Comment on Bill McDonald and a Personal Encounter May Result.

San Antonio, Texas, March 9.—During a recess in the court martial

JOHN SMITH, IN BONZE, TO RETURN TO POCAHONTAS' LAND.

STATUE OF CAPTAIN JOHN SMITH, BY WILLIAM COUPER

New York March 9.—To be cast in bronze, a statue of Captain John Smith has been modeled by William Couper, a sculptor, of 207 East Seventeenth street, which will be erected by the Society of the Preservation of Friday Major Penrose denounced former Ranger Captain "Bill" McDonald, who made the investigation of the Brownsville raid on behalf of the state, and who, Major Blockson had said, would charge hell with a bucket of water.

Speaking of the fact that Captain McDonald had not been called upon to testify, Major Penrose said:

"Oh, of course, all the defense's witnesses are liars, and all those witnesses who came here from Brownsville told the truth; but there is one contemptible coward I would like to have summoned as a witness before the Senate inquiry, and that is that fellow McDonald. I'd like to tip off Senator Foraker on a few questions to ask him. He is a thorough coward."

As Captain McDonald is a man of very rash temper, and a "killer," many fear that Major Penrose's remarks will result in a personal encounter between the two men.

APPROPRIATION OF $40,000 FOR NEWARK POSTOFFICE SITE

Explained by Advocate's Washington Correspondent—Is Only Part of Original $90,000 Authorized.

The Advocate has received from its Washington correspondent the following explanation of the dispatch received a few days ago pertaining to the appropriation of $40,000 for a postoffice site at Newark by which it will be seen that the sum is merely a part of the original $90,000 for the Newark building and is not an addition to the original sum. The dispatch which follows is sufficiently explanatory:

Washington, D. C., March 9.—Last year's action in the public buildings bill merely provided for a "public building not to cost more than $90,000. This year's action in the sundry civil bill is the first appropriation under the authorized action. The $40,000 thus appropriated for expenditure for the postoffice site in the coming fiscal year is a part of the $90,000 originally provided for. The $90,000 is still the limit.

NEW GAS WELL.

Granville, O., March 9.—Several days ago the Columbus Natural Gas company commenced the work of drilling a well on the farm of the late Edwin Sinett, just south of the village of Granville. They had reached a depth of about 200 feet, when the drill got lost, and they have been fishing for it without success for the past two days.

REFORMATORY QUARANTINED.

Mansfield, O., March 9.—The Ohio State Reformatory has been placed under quarantine by the state board of health on account of a case of smallpox developing in the institution. Jesse Ammon of Jefferson county, who was received last October for larceny, was taken ill a few days ago, and the prison physician yesterday pronounced the case smallpox.

MADE STORY OUT OF WHOLE CLOTH

Honduras Arrest of Fathers Leininger and Kress is Thus Pronounced by Them.

Zanesville, O., March 9.—The Signal is in receipt of two communications, one from Father Leininger and one from Father Kress dated Plaquemine, La., February 28. In the letter of Father Leininger he requests the Signal to make correction of the false statement which appeared in the New Orleans Picayune of February 27, and characterizes it as a grand joke. The following statement is from Father Kress and was sent to the New Orleans Picayune:

"Please allow me to correct a false report that slipped into yesterday's Picayune of the arrest of Rev. A. L. Leininger and myself, Catholic priests, by the authorities of Puerto Cortes, Republic of Honduras. It was a story out of whole cloth. Mr. P. A. Barrosse, a former citizen of New Orleans, came to the boat Anselm, last Tuesday night, in company with a cousin, and urgently requested us to baptize a child at his house. There had been no Catholic priest in the place for several months. On our return to the ship, we were halted by a sentry, something we were told to expect. After a mere word of explanation that we were two Catholic priests returning to the Anselm, we were permitted to proceed with a hearty 'All right,' from the sentry. "There is about as much truth in the story of great excitement at Puerto Cortes over the opera bouffe war, as in the report of our arrest."

"Yours,
(Signed) "W. S. KRESS."

BRAINS

OF PUPILS ARE BEFUDDLED BY BREATHING THROUGH THE MOUTH.

Operations Will be Performed on 200 Children to Improve Their Intellects.

South Manchester, Conn., March 9.—By the advice of doctors here 200 school children attendants at the Ninth District school of this place will undergo operations on their throats within a short time in an effort to advance their scholarship. The children, it is claimed, breathe through their mouths instead of their noses, and this, in the opinion of the doctors, befuddles their brains.

The low scholarship standing of the pupils of the Ninth district was recently called to the attention of Howell Cheney, chairman of the district, and after consultation with leading physicians of the town and a throat specialist from Hartford it was found that out of the 1,800 children in attendance in that district over 200 had swollen tonsils or adenoids, which made them incapable to study and inclined to be mischievous.

It is proposed to operate on all these youngsters as soon as possible and local physicians will canvass the town and explain to anxious parents the necessity of having the disease arrested and the children's mental condition improved thereby.

When the Hon. Kirby in Grafton, Mass., was built in 1793, the 9x12 panes of glass in the windows were a curiosity, they were so large. The three story brick building was then considered an imposing structure.

PRESIDENT'S SON NEAR DEATH — DOCTORS ADOPT HEROIC METHODS.

ARCHIE ROOSEVELT

Washington, March 9.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt were given great concern at noon on Thursday by a sudden change for the worse in the condition of their son Archie, who has been ill of diphtheria since Saturday.

Dr. Alexander Lambert of New York, who for years has been the Roosevelt family physician, was hastily summoned from New York, and Surgeon General Rixey, of the navy, who has been attending the youth, turned the case over to him. Much encouragement was felt at twenty minutes after ten o'clock last night when a bulletin was given out by Surgeon General Rixey as he left the White House for the night stating that the boy was much better.

CONCERN IMPROVING.

Washington, March 9.—Archie Roosevelt who has been suffering with diphtheria for a week, continues to improve, according to Dr. Alexander Lambert, physician in charge of his case. At 8:30 a. m. Dr. Lambert announced that Archie had passed a very comfortable night, and that the outlook was favorable in every way.

JUDGE MAKES BITTER ATTACK ON FORAKER AT A BANQUET

Niles, O., March 9.—At a banquet given last night to Congressman W. Aubrey Thomas, of the 19th Ohio district, Judge E. E. Roberts of Warren, bitterly attacked Senator Foraker for his opposition to President Roosevelt during the session of Congress just closed. He declared that Foraker could not be Ohio's choice for the presidency, but that Taft would be selected. Of Foraker, Roberts said:

"I do not believe a man should represent us in the United States Senate who, as counsel, had previously been paid fees by corporation clients and spends most of one entire session of Congress in writing briefs and making speeches for the purpose of defeating the ends of our good President, who is working for the interests of the people."

"I think a senator from this great state of Ohio has something better to do than play peanut politics."

Then came Roberts' declaration against Foraker and for Taft for president. Judge Wanamaker of Akron, Senator Dick's bitter enemy, followed with the statement:

"Judge Roberts only speaks the thoughts we all cowardly shrink from uttering. Next year's great question will be: Shall the government control the corporations, or the corporations control the government? This question must be solved or Bryanism or socialism will be the result. I think the question will be solved by President Roosevelt or his successor, whose name I believe is Taft."

FIRST DEFINITE CLEW OBTAINED ABOUT DELAWARE'S KIDNAPPED BOY

Dover, Del., March 9.—For the first time since his disappearance last Monday, a tangible clew as to the probable kidnapers of four year old Horace N. Marvin, son of Dr. Marvin, has been obtained. John Hart, of Bowers Beach, is in jail at New Castle, being held until he can give a satisfactory explanation of his actions on the day the lad was kidnapped.

Last Monday Hart is said to have been cruising about the beach of one Marvin farm and to have made a landing at a point near the old barn on the estate where the child is supposed to have been held immediately after the kidnapping.

Hart insists that he was alone on the sloop on Monday. The testimony of a dozen reputable witnesses is that there was at least one other man aboard the craft, and that the sloop had in tow a small gasoline launch. It has been learned that recently two strangers at Bowers Beach had been paying regular visits to Hart. One of these persons was a well dressed man wearing a Vandyke beard, and the other a very plain looking woman, who is described as looking like an ordinary servant.

The police admit that they are seeking evidence to prove that this couple was concerned in the kidnapping. An effort to make Hart confess to a theory which they now hold, that the kidnapped child is being held by a woman in Philadelphia, the police will today submit their position to a "third degree" examination.

The latest developments tend to show that the boy was probably kidnapped to be held for ransom. The theory that the lad might have been stolen as the result of trouble in Dr. Marvin's own family has been entirely dispelled.

EXPERTS FAILED JEROME

One Says He Cannot Say Whether or Not Thaw Has Been or is Now Insane-- Sensations Expected.

New York, March 9.—District Attorney Jerome's experts have failed him. This it was stated today is the real secret of the prosecutor's taking a continuance when the defense suddenly rested its case yesterday. The experts employed by the state have had such scant opportunity to study Thaw that it is declared they are unwilling to venture an opinion as to Thaw's sanity, past or present. Jerome had hoped that the hypothetical question Delmas contemplated putting to his other experts, Drs. Hammond and Jelliffe, would bring out points on which his alienists could express a satisfactory opinion, either that Thaw was sane when he killed his enemy, or is insane at present. It was the district attorney's plan to put his own experts on the stand immediately to contradict the defense's alienists while their testimony was fresh in the juror's minds.

When Delmas closed without putting on the experts, Jerome was blocked. He had to change his own plans. It is understood he now intends to put on his experts as the last witnesses on rebuttal. This will give them several more days in which to study Thaw.

One of the state's experts, it is said, told a friend he has been unable to make up his mind as to Thaw's mental condition from the study of the prisoner in court and that his fellow experts were in the same fix.

Jerome is expected to spring some surprises in rebuttal.

One of the most important points he will try to prove is that Sanford White was not near his studio on the night Evelyn says she was wronged by him. This date can be fixed, it is asserted, by Photographer Eichmeyer who took pictures. Evelyn testified she posed for the day preceding.

The rules forbid Jerome contradicting Evelyn's recital of what she told Thaw in Paris, but Jerome will make a hard fight to get this date before the jury. It is pointed out, even if he cannot get this evidence on record he can throw questions give the facts to the jury.

Jerome will also try to get in the affidavit which, it is claimed, Evelyn gave to Abe Hummel, accusing Thaw of brutality to her which was shut out or cross examination. A story was circulated today that the Countess of Yarmouth, Thaw's sister, has expressed a determination not to return to Europe until Thaw is separated from his wife. Howard Nesbit, Evelyn's brother, is authority for the declaration.

Thaw's experts testified he was insane the day of his wedding. This would invalidate the marriage. If Thaw is acquitted, it is asserted, the countess will insist upon his leaving Evelyn. Her social position in England, it is said, demands that her family shall be rid of the "unsavory" sister-in-law.

Brister were the guests at the Doctor's hospitable home on Thursday evening, when they were delightfully entertained by the Doctor and his daughter, Miss Jessie, pleasantly assisted by Miss Ruby King. EVENING GOWN OF CREAM NET.

A very graceful evening frock is shown in the drawing, the design being so arranged that a thin lace yoke could be adjusted on occasions where high neck is in order. The model frock was of a deep cream color net trimmed with net lace insertion and flouncing, and bias bands or folds of corn-color satin. The gown was made over white taffeta silk, with an interlining of cream-white mousseline. The bodice of the gown was joined to the skirt in princess effect by a girle made of insertion. A suggestion of Empire lines was given by the folds of satin, which terminated at the top of the high girle, back and front. Satin folds headed the festoons of lace about the lower part of the skirt, and a three-inch band was used as a hem for the net foundation.

Dancing was indulged in until a late hour, all present enjoying a good social evening with the club and its friends. Although the weather was somewhat disagreeable, the hop was patronized by a large crowd, about one hundred being present, which is very encouraging to the club and proves that a dance conducted on a strictly invitation plan meets with the approval of the public. As was announced at the dance on Thursday evening, the club will give a grand ball on Easter Monday, at which time a prize waltz will be given.

"THE WIZARD" is the name affectionately applied to Thomas Alva Edison, and he is indeed a wizard, to be able to produce in the Edison Phonograph an instrument which will duplicate in every home the music and words of every form of entertainment.

Perhaps the most wonderful gift of the human race is the power of speech. Therefore, the most wonderful invention is a machine which will reproduce speech, but the Edison Phonograph goes farther than that. Even man, gifted with speech, cannot imitate a brass band or an hundred-piece orchestra or the roar of Niagara Falls or Mario's tenor note "which would soothe the souls in purgatory," but the Edison Phonograph will. It must be heard to be appreciated, but it must be owned to be enjoyed. Hear it at the nearest store. If people would only go and hear it, the selling of it would be easy.

Special Wednesday Miniature Clock 49c

LINGERIE WAIST OF THIS MERCERIZED BATISTE.

The model waist from which the sketch was taken was one of the most effective designs at a recent exhibition of fine blouses. The collar and small round yoke were of narrow German val. insertion below which was inset a section of all-over val., which in turn was outlined by insertion between which was a section of finely tucked batiste. Insertion and lace were also used about the lower part of the waist and across the top of the sleeves. The cuffs of the elbow-length sleeves were made of five rows of insertion, divided by a two-inch wide ruffle of edging to match and finished by another ruffle of the same.

The police have been called upon patrol station where Officer Zergle-bel was detailed to put an end to

After the execution, the dog was

AMUSEMENTS

"TWO MERRY TRAMPS."

So many musical comedies are built without rhyme or reason that the public in general have about come to the conclusion that the only make up of this style of stage production is the stereotyped string of vaudeville acts, a number of choruses and an opening and closing speech. Wood & Ward, realizing this state of affairs cast about for a comedy that would have an original plot and dialogue that necessitated the introduction of neither a chorus of young women or a number of vaudeville acts to make the "Two Merry Tramps" a success.

"HEIR TO THE HOORAH"

As Bud Young says in Paul Armstrong's new comedy: "The Heir to the Hoorah," "There's nothing to it but success." The characteristic line accurately describes the measure of favor with which this comedy is being received by the audience wherever it is offered. The late Kirke LaShelle's genius of selection never better served him than in his choice of the Armstrong play as a winner and of Guy Bates Post, Janet Beecher, Helene Lackey, Frank
Monroe, Ralph Dean, Ernest Lamson and the other artists of the admirably balanced cast. New York doesn't usually promise much to legitimate plays during the warm days of late spring and early autumn, but "The Heir to the Hoorah," produced at the Hudson Theatre in Lent, ran to crowded houses well along into the dog days. It returns to the Auditorium Theatre, Thursday, March 14.

March 9 In History.

1758—Dr. Joseph Franz Gall, author of the system of phrenology, born; died 1820. Dr. Gall was a native of Baden.
After studying natural sciences he practiced as a physician in Vienna.
He devoted much time to the study of the brain and to the external signs of the functions and faculties of the human mind. With his pupil and col-laborer, Spurzheim, he propagated his new doctrines in the principal cities of Europe. He published in 1810-19 the work entitled "The Anatomy and Physiology of the Nervous System in General and of the Brain in Particular."

Battle between the Federal and Confederate iron clads, the Monitor and Merrimack, 1862.

The defeat of the ship subsidy bill by the Democratic senators during the last hours of the late session practically lays that great public steal upon the shelf for all time.
No such measure can pass the new congress for the Republican majority in the next House has been reduced one-half. Moreover, about all the Republican members who joined the Democrats in opposition to the bill have been re-elected, and they will be supported by the increased number of the Democratic membership. The sentiment of the country, too, against corporation greed and trust subsidies will continue to grow and become more forceful.

Evidences continue to multiply, as reported from Washington in dispatches telling of the dissatisfaction over the hold-up of confirmation of Ohio postoffice appointments, that there is a strong belief among Ohio
Republicans that he indorsement
"most heartily and without reserve"
given to Senators Foraker and Dick at the Dayton convention last September was not only ill advised and unwarranted but an egregious blunder.

Here's the Marion Star saying:
"For some reason the general public does not appear to have the high esteem for the fifty-ninth congress voiced by the President." It is in order for the two Ohio senators to make another appeal to the people to hold up the hands of the President.

Congressman Grant E. Mouser of Marion, who voted with the Democrats to kill the ship subsidy bill when it was passed in the House, has returned home where in an interview he declared that he bill was nothing more than a steal and should have been killed in the House instead of being talked to death by Senator Carmack of Tennessee. Congressman Mouser said:
"When they get right up on the floor of the House and admit that there is a steal in it it's time that it should be stopped." It is to be noted in this connection that our own Martin Luther Snyder recorded himself against the bill on the first roll call, but he lacked the necessary steadfastness of purpose to keep on the right side and hustled to line up with the majority of his party who favored the steal.

Castel vs. Castel.
In the divorce case of Castel vs.
Castel, in which the wife charged her husband with adultery, the Probate court granted the plaintiff a decrea as prayed for, and the husband was barred from any right of dower.
The case of Ohio against George Dague and Ruth Porter was heard in the Probate court on Saturday. A petition had been filed by Thomas H.
Jones, president of the board of education of Granville township, charging Dague with gross immorality, incorrigibility and carrying concealed weapons. Ruth Porter was charged with gross immorality. It was proved that the boy had put his arm around the little girl, who is only 11 years old.
The boy, Dague, was found guilty of carrying concealed weapons a pistol,
and was placed under a suspended sentence to the Boys' Industrial school

BACK GIVES OUT

them—
They can't keep up the continual strain.

The back gives out—it aches and pains;
Urinary troubles set in.
Don't wait longer—take Doan's Kidney Pills.

Newark people tell you how they act.

M. B. Melick, driver, of 54 West Church street, Newark, O., says:
"For a long time I was suffering from a constant sickening pain in the small of the back and in the hips. Any quick movement was followed by sharp darting twinges that caught me suddenly and almost doubled me up. I suffered so from pains through the hips that at times I was almost laid up. Liniments and hop applications had little effect on it and I began using various medicines recommended for such troubles.
I had little success until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Crayton's drug store. It was the only remedy that really found the right spot. It banished my troubles in time, and I have had no return of any symptom of kidney complaint since using it."

cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo,

Constipation

Baked sweet apples, with some people, bring prompt relief for Constipation. With others coarse all wheat bread will have the same effect.
Nature undoubtedly has a vegetable remedy to relieve every ailment known to man, if physicians can but find Nature's way to health. And this is strikingly true with regard to Constipation.

The bark of a certain tree in California—Cascara Sagrada—offers a most excellent aid to this end. But, combined with Egyptian Senna, Slippery Elm Bark, Solid Extract of Prunes, etc., this same Cascara bark is given its greatest possible power to correct constipation. A toothsome Candy Tablet, called Lax-ets, is now made at the Dr. Shoop Laboratories, from this ingenious and most effective prescription. Its effect on Constipation, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Bad Breath, Sallow Complexion, etc., is indeed prompt and satisfying.

No griping, no unpleasant after effects are experienced, and Lax-ets are put up in beautiful lithographed metal boxes at 5 cents and 25 cents per box.

YOUR HEALTH

IN a timely and instructive article recently printed in The Advocate, Prof. J. D. Simkins of our schools pointed out most forcibly the menace to health and life in the use of the pipeless gas stove.

He shows you that in burning one cubic foot of gas, one cubic foot of carbon dioxide is liberated in the room. Carbon dioxide is a deadly poison. To quote:

"These stoves burn the life giving oxygen out of the air and substitute the deadly carbon dioxide for it."

"Last year I saw several office girls lose their health, as I believe,
from the use of such stoves."

".....think of the thousands of innocent children and helpless employees who are having their health impaired by the use of such stoves."

"The people ought to be cautioned against the use of too many gas lights in a room, not to mention a stove."

A timely warning, this, as 3 open flame gas light burners or 6 mantle burners consume about as much oxygen and throw off about the same quantity of carbon dioxide as one ordinary pipeless gas heater.

You may say, "We use gas lights and we are healthy." How about those sharp pains in the head, chest and back, how about those splitting headaches, how about those tired, smarting, aching eyes? You don't have them in the summer when you are out of doors!

Prof. Simkins is not the only humanitarian who is warning the thoughtless ones who refuse to make practical use of "knowing better."
In the "Ladies Home Journal" for February is an article by Max H. West, Ph. D., Investigator of Economics for the U. S. Department of Commerce and Labor, on "How Shall We Heat and Light Our Homes?" In the course of this article Dr. West says:

"A mantle Gas Burner in a room uses up as much air as three persons do," and "With an open flame gas jet the air will be vitiated as much as by the breath of five persons." Under the head,

"Effect of Different Illuminants Upon the Air."

Dr. West says: "Incandescent Electric Lights are in a class by themselves in this respect, producing NO vitiation and little heat."

POLICE SCHEDULE COMPLETED

A complete schedule for each police district in the city has been made out and each officer has been given a list of the patrol boxes from which he is to report together with the hours each box is to be visited.

Chief Sheridan Saturday morning gave instructions to the dry officers as to the system of reporting and explained the workings of the box mechanism. The dry officers are reporting today from the boxes around the square. The night force made such reports last night. Commencing Monday the operators will be on duty and the system will be in good working order.

At the last regular meeting of

ONLY FOURTEEN

But Deserted by Her Parents the Girl
Took a Fatal Dose of Carbolic Acid.

Columbus, Ind., March 9—Augusta Holloway, aged 14 years, is dying at the home of Marion Lane, 10 miles east of here, from the effects of carbolic acid, which she took with suicidal intent Friday afternoon. The child went to the home of Ardell Burney a neighbor, and asked for some carbolic acid with which to treat one of her toes, which she said, had become sore from a corn. She was given a liberal quantity of the poison.

When she returned to the Lane home she asked Mrs. Lane how much carbolic acid would be required to kill a person, and receiving an evasive answer from Mrs. Lane, who at the time did not know she had the poison, she drained the vial in her mouth, burning her throat and stomach horribly. A physician was summoned but he said he could not save her.

The girl gives no reason for her rash act, except that she was tired of living. One year ago her parents separated and left the girl to shift for herself as best she could. For the past few months she had been given a home by the Lanes.

SHAKE WELL IN A BOTTLE

HIGHLY RECOMMENDED PRE-SCRIPTION FOR KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES.

How to Find Out if the Kidneys Are Affected and What to Do.

A well known authority states that there are more cases of kidney troubles here now than ever before,
while recent reports show that more people succumb each year to some form of kidney disease than any other cause.

When there is sickness existing the urine. Rheumatism is only a symptom of kidney trouble. It is nothing more or less than excessive uric acid in the blood, which the sluggish, inactive kidneys have failed to sift out, leaving it to decompose and settle about the joints and muscles, causing intense suffering; frequently resulting in deformity; often reaching the heart when death ensues.

Pains across the back, frequent,
painful and suppressed urination and other symptoms of weak bladder are not the only signs of kidney trouble;
many cases of stomach disease, headache, pain in the heart, inactive liver, etc., are but symptoms; the cause
of which can be traced to feeble, clogged kidneys.

The physicians for the insurance companies always carefully examine and report on the condition of the urine. It is a certain sign of sickness or health of the human body.

A test of the urine should be made by every man and woman at least once each year. A simple test is to void a small quantity of urine in a bottle or glass and let it stand over night; next morning, if there is a reddish brick-dust sediment, or white, fleshy substance present, either consult some reputable physician or take a good vegetable treatment. The following prescription is recommended highly in these cases, and if desirable the sufferer can mix it at home. Any good prescription pharmacy has the ingredients, which are harmless and inexpensive: Compound Kargos, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime. Where any of the symptoms enumerated above are present, good results are sure to follow immediately the use of this simple prescription.

"I Had a Cough

MRS. GRACE JANSON.

Mrs. Grace Janson, 1460 Madison street, Chicago, Ill., writes:
"Typhoid fever left me with a complication of diseases. I had a terrible pain in my left side and had a cough that all my friends feared would soon end my life."

"My doctor came to see me three times a week, but could do me no good.
He could not account for the pain in my left side and could give me nothing to relieve me."

"About this time I began taking Pe-ru-na and before I had taken one bottle I had hopes of getting better. By the time I had taken the second bottle, my cough was entirely gone and I felt like a new being."

"I took just three bottles of Pe-ru-na and am entirely well and feel better than I have felt for years. I thank God and Dr. Hartman for my recovery."

MANY cases of chronic catarrh result from a settled cold.

Women are especially liable to colds.
These colds occur more frequently during the wet, sloppy weather of winter and spring than any other time of the year. Often they are not considered serious and are allowed to run on,

or they are treated in such a way as to only palliate the symptoms, while the cold becomes more deep-seated and the patient finally awakens to the fact that she has a well-developed case of catarrh.

By reason of their delicate structure the lungs are frequently the seat of a cold, especially if there is the slightest weakness of these organs. The treatment of catarrh of the lungs is also more difficult and discouraging than catarrh of any other organ of the body.
It would be wise, therefore, to guard against it by every precaution possible.
Pe-ru-na has been found a most reliable remedy for coughs, colds and catarrhal diseases, by reason of the fact that it goes at once to the very seat of the trouble.

Mrs. M. F. Jones, Burning Springs,
Ky., writes:

"We have been using Pe-ru-na for some time and have no hesitancy in recommending it for the thousand and one ailments of humanity."

"No family should ever be without it,
for it is an unfailing cure for colds, and it is an excellent remedy to prevent and relieve croup."

Strong and Vigorous Since Taking Pe-ru-na.

Mrs. Laura Benyo, 824 Ann street,
Cincinnati, Ohio, writes:

"I am entirely cured of catarrh of the bronchial tubes by Pe-ru-na. My chest feels strong and vigorous, and it seems as though I never had catarrh."
"Whenever I am in need of medicine, Pe-ru-na will be what I will take." It saved my life. I shall always sing its praises."

One Bottle Brings Relief.

Miss Annie Huelsman, R. R. 2,
Wright City, Mo., writes:

"For years I was troubled with catarrh. A friend advised Pe-ru-na. With the first bottle I found relief. I kept on taking it and am entirely well."

Manager Berryhill Says
New Men Will Satisfy
Newark Fans

He Makes No Promises to Furnish Pennant Winner

ASKS SQUARE DEAL FOR ALL

Newark's Manager Writes Advocate
About Plans for Season—Gives Dope About New Players
Signed Here.

Manager Robert E. Berryhill has taken his pencil in hand to tell the fans a few points about the Newark team for 1907. A noticeable feature of the letter is the fact that Bob does not brag.

To start the matters off, Berryhill says he has been hard at work trying to land a couple of good players for the Newark team and has but little time to write.

Berryhill says: "As to the New-

CATCHER W. C. PEARCE, JR.

He got his early training at Culver Military Academy, and has played professional ball.

ark team, will say that I have made no promise to furnish a pennant winner, but I will say that the fans of Newark can rest assured that they will see a bunch of hustling ball players and they will be fighting for every game. By this I mean that they will not give up until the last man is out.

"It has been demonstrated that 'brute strength' can not win ball games, but that it takes good judgment and that 'never say die' spirit in a ball team. I think we have that. Our catching department will be improved over last year as Winters will be better and I assure you that he will have a willing helpmate in Pearce junior. Our pitching staff will be as good as any in the circuit. Webb is getting onto the ways of the batters and was showing good control. Link and Stoupe were both considered as good as the best and the records will bear me out in this. Ascher is as speedy as Stoupe and fields his position as well as any of them.

"Then there is Joe Locke, always a good man, and L. W. Henderson, and in all probability one or two others. I can not help but think that our pitching staff will be strong.

"The infield was good last year, but I think it will show improvement this season. I shall endeavor to install a system of team playing this season which was so lamentably lacking last season. In Snyder, Al Schweitzer and Thomas or Walls we have three fast men. All good hitters and fast men on the bags.

"The fans will see a different spirit this year. It will be 'up and at 'em' all the time, and the lovers of the sport will not leave the park and say 'They did not try.' However, the fans can judge for themselves after April 10 as the men will have reported, and they will get a chance to see them in action.

"All that I ask for myself and the men is that the fans give each man a square deal, for ball players are human and are likely to make misplays. In fact were it not for errors, baseball would be a poor game, for the uncertainty of the game is what makes it popular.

"As to the new players, I will give a few brief points on their past records. Pitcher Ascher is 24 years old and is 6 feet tall. He will tip the beam at 190 pounds. He was with Peoria of the Three League last season. Why this man was allowed to get out of that league I am unable to understand. He has as much speed as any pitcher in the O. P. league, fields his position like a big leaguer. With Stoupe, Link, Webb, Ascher and Locke and one or two others to choose from, Newark need have no fear as to her pitching department.

"Catcher W. C. Pearce learned his baseball at Culver Military academy. He is 6 feet 1 inch tall, weighs 190 pounds. In the season of 1904 he was with Evansville of the Central league. Owing to an accident and an abundance of boils his work was handicapped. In 1905 he was with Terra Haute and in May was struck in the head by a pitched ball and was put out of business. He played no more professional ball that season.

"In 1906 he was with Springfield of the Three League and in June was sold to Bloomington. He got a broken finger and succeeded in getting his release. That is the way Newark got him. With Pearce and Winters, Newark will have two catchers with lots of snap and ginger.

"James Pearce plays either the in or outfield. He is a comedian as well as a ball player. He was a member of the famous Indianapolis Reserves for several years. He is a good, steady ball player and is always looking for an opening. He is regarded as a good base runner.

"Bluford Walls is 22-years-old and played last season in the Kitty league. He was taken sick and gave up the game in July. He is fast on his feet and a very good hitter. He has the material to make a good ball player and I believe he will hold his own with any of the youngsters. He can play a fair infield position if necessary.

"Smith, the new infielder, hails from New Hampshire. He is a remarkably fast man, a splendid whip and a hard hitter. He knows how to slide and from what I have seen of him, I think he will make some one hustle for infield positions.

"Thomas is a good utility man and I think he will please the fans by his honest efforts. He is fast on the bases, and has the making of a splendid hitter.

"With these few facts about the new men and the general knowledge of last year's men, I think the fans will realize that Newark's prospects are bright. In closing I would add that every player will work his hardest to give the town a good team and nothing but this will satisfy the management. The fans know the Newark men at the head of the company better than I do, and they know that they will insist on a first class team."

SPORT GOSSIP.

Only 33 days until reporting time. Manager Tom Huling has signed Tommy Tighe, a Cincinnati star pitcher. Doggie says this completes his team at Clarksburg, W. Va.

The House of Representatives in Nebraska defeated a bill making Sunday baseball illegal. This is one for the fans.

East and Ortleib, the Akron men at Hot Springs, report that they are in the pink of condition. That's nice.

Reports from Baltimore say that Bill Dithridge has been signed there. Bill batted .320 in the Kitty league last season.

Bob Spade of Akron has returned a contract to Macon unsigned. They had the salary figure named and said his request for more money would be fixed later. Bob passed.

Wheeling, Canton and Steubenville have been booked for exhibition games at Akron. The season isn't far off, is it?

Secretary Farrell's latest bulletin says that Pitcher Jack Fitzgerald of Akron and Third Baseman Harry Ritter of Mansfield, have been reinstated. They were sentenced to the Outlaw league but their cases have been reconsidered.

The last practice of the girls' basketball teams of the High school will probably be held tonight. FITZGERALD WON
FOURTH PLACE

IN SKATER'S CONTEST AT WASHINGTON C. H. ON FRIDAY NIGHT.

Unsportsman-like Conduct of Cincinnati Contestants Brought Jeers From Big Crowd.

Freddie Fitzgerald, Newark's star skater, returned this morning from Washington C. H., defeated, but not disgraced. In fact the other contestants in the two mile race on the dinky little rink floor were the ones who were disgraced, and even the Washington people showed their true sporting spirit by cheering and applauding for Fitzgerald though he finished third in the race.

There were 18 entries in the race. The preliminaries were run off in three heats. The Newark boy was in the second heat with Orlick of Cincinnati, Schoone of Cincinnati, Ricketts of Columbus, and Kilgore of Columbus.

In the finals Fitzgerald finished third. Orlick took first position and first money. Felix Ochsner of Cincinnati was second and got second money. Fitzgerald came in third and was out of the money, and Kilgore finished last.

The Cincinnati contingent feared the Newark lad from the first and when the finals were started, they made every effort by dirty tactics to put him out of the running. He was blocked at every turn and one of the other contestants even went so far as to stick out his foot each time Fitzgerald attempted to pass him. Zigzagging in front of the Newark boy was a frequent offense and none of the rules laid down before the race opened were enforced on the Cincinnati boys at all.

Fitzgerald thinks he was not given a square deal and is willing to go against any of the contestants at any time.

POLO AT MT. VERNON.

The Newark polo team went to Mt. Vernon today where they will play the Akron team on the floor of the Mt. Vernon rink. The game is in the nature of an exhibition.

A patent for paper waistcoats has been taken out in Switzerland. They will cost only 4 cents, and are said to be warmer than a woolen garment.

HUPP STILL HAS
LEAD IN POOL
TOURNAMENT

Newark Man Will Start Last Lap
Tonight With Nine Balls to the Good.

That 600 ball pool tournament at Music Hall opera house took a new turn last night and instead of Joe Hupp walking away with the New Jersey champion, the latter showed the Newark man a point or two about the game. Watson finished his 500 balls while Hupp was pocketing 180 of the ivories and even at this Hupp maintained a lead of 9 balls over his opponent.

The game last night was close and the crowd was a little larger than the night before. Both men made some fine shots and the crowd that witnessed the contest applauded freely when their favorite scored a good point.

Tonight's series of 200 balls will end the tournament and Hupp starts in with a lead of 9 balls. Both men will try harder tonight than on either of the previous nights, and those who attend the contest will be given a rare treat in pool playing.

Kid Glick and his manager, of Columbus, attended the tournament last night and has issued a challenge to the winner of the contest for a side bet of any sum from $25 to $200 or the receipts. Last night's contest was refereed by Charles Walton.

BOWLING

The game between the Gimlets and the Odd Five was two to one in favor of Gimlets. This game was very close, the last frame deciding each game. Johnson, of the Odd Five, rolled high average and also high score. The final play of the evening was John Schimpf, making 7 and 10 pins on a spare on a rebound.

Next week prizes will be given on all four alleys for high score.

New York, March 9.—For the first time in its history, national championship skating races were held under the auspices of the Amateur Athletic Union at Woodlands Lake, Westchester, on Tuesday.

Philip J. Kearney, of the New York Athletic Club, and A. W. Taylor of the Irish-American Athletic Club, divided the prize winning honors of the meet, Kearney capturing first prize in the half and one mile races and second in the "hundred."

Taylor also scored two victories, finishing first in the quarter mile and five mile events. Kearney might have eclipsed Taylor's efforts if he had not fallen in the "hundred," quarter mile and five mile races.

In the sprint event he fell 80 yards from the finish and slid the remainder of the distance.

The Major's Lesson

[Copyright, 1906, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.]

Major Thornton, U. S. A., retired, was at Margate, England. Going one day to his room, he found in the hall of the hotel a diamond sunburst. His first thought was to go down to the office and turn in the lost jewel, his second was to wait and give the loser a glad surprise.

They were discussing the matter in the lunch room when he went down. While he was out on the promenade there had been an arrest in the hotel. The wife of a prominent manufacturer stopping at the house had made an error that the jewel had been taken from her room during a momentary absence. Suspicion was directed to a waiter named Saunders, who had come up to the next room with an order, and when suddenly accused of the theft he became confused and embarrassed and had been put under arrest and taken away. None of those who saw him and heard his lame explanations could make the least excuse for him. A search had failed to find the jewel on his person, but it was, of course, argued that he had passed it to a confederate.

The major heard all this and much more, and he had started in to defend the waiter and talk about the unreliability of circumstantial evidence and cite instances when the lady assured her hearers for the tenth time that she had the jewel in her hand and was looking at the hinge of the pin not a moment before she left the room. She was most positive that she left it behind her on the dresser. She would swear to that in all the courts of the land. The aggressiveness and the positiveness of the lady rather startled the major. If she could not be made to believe that she had dropped the thing in the hall where he had found it, what sort of a position would it put him in?

The major kept the sunburst in his pocket. Saunders had been put through the third degree at the police station and given his liberty. He had come down from London fairly recommended, and up to that moment no fault had been found with him. He returned to the hotel and talked about a suit for damages and faintly frightened the woman into giving him a hundred dollars in cash and making a humble apology.

When the waiter had been freed the major's quandary was worse than ever. If he restored the jewel, he would be asked why he delayed. It was very doubtful also if his story of finding it in the hall would be believed. The loser was too positive for that. The man Saunders went away at once. If the jewel could in some way be returned to the lady, would anybody believe that the waiter had become conscience stricken? On the contrary, wouldn't everybody declare that the real thief had become frightened and was still a guest at the hotel?

How we argue to ourselves and how other people argue about us are two different things. As a matter of fact, the major was the last one to be suspected, and yet he had the feeling that all looked upon him with suspicion. Whether at table, in the smoking room or on the sands, the subject was constantly turning up, and he sometimes wondered why he was not arrested as the criminal. He stood this sort of "bing" for two weeks and then decided to go elsewhere. He would go up to London and from thence mail the jewel to the lady and go on to Paris at once. From the time he left the hotel until the train started he was in a cold sweat. The sight of a policeman gave him feet as cold as ice. When he reached London he suddenly remembered that a valuable parcel like that must be receipted for and the name of the sender given. He might give a false name, but if the parcel was traced back wouldn't his personality be remembered? The major sat on a bench in St. James' park trying to figure it out when a voice said:

"Major Thornton, sir, if you will permit the liberty, sir!"

It was Saunders, the waiter. He was well dressed and looking pretty chipper. The major made room for him on the bench, and the waiter sat down to continue:

"Major, that was a bad deal they gave me at Margate."

"Y-e-s," was the reply.

"It may be the means of ruining a honest man's reputation. Such things get out, you know, and once a man in this profession is spotted as crooked no hotel wants him thereafter. If I hadn't lost my head I should have made the lady pay five times the price she did."

"I was not one of those who thought you took the sunburst."

"Thank you, sir—thank you from the bottom of my heart. You have given me hope."

"What I think," continued the major, "is that the lady dropped the jewel in the hall and some one found and kept it."

"Just my idea all the time, sir. It must have been dropped in the hall and picked up by somebody else."

There was further talk, and after a quarter of an hour Saunders arose, uttered his heartfelt thanks once more and took himself off. He had been gone ten minutes when the major felt in his pocket for the sunburst and its box. They were gone; also his wallet and his watch. Saunders had cleaned him out as they sat talking. It was a beautiful case of pocket picking and thanks rendering in one, and though it put the major in a heap financially, he heaved a sigh of relief as he realized that he was rid of the sunburst at last. Saunders had taken it from the room and dropped it in his bureau to get away.

TO BENEFIT WOMEN.

Cincinnati Banker Establishes a Fund In Memory of Daughter.

J. G. Schmidlapp, multimillionaire banker, distiller and capitalist, announced recently the establishment of a trust fund of $250,000, the interest of which is to be devoted to the benefit of young women. It is said that he was actuated in the matter after a recent visit to New York, when Evelyn Nesbit Thaw was on the stand, by her testimony. The fund is a memorial to Mr. Schmidlapp's daughter, Charlotte, and makes a total of $500,000 given recently by Mr. Schmidlapp as memorials to his wife and two daughters, all of whom met death in accidents.

The new trust is to be administered by the mayor of Cincinnati, the president of the Cincinnati university and five directors of the Union Trust company of Cincinnati, and there is no limit of any sort on the trustees in selecting beneficiaries, says a Cincinnati dispatch to the New York World. The income is to be used for the benefit of young women in "caring for them, in constraint or education." Part of the income is to be reserved until the total reaches $2,000,000, and the trust deed reserves the right to add to the principal or income at any time. Securities of five well known corporations are set aside for the trust.

Mr. Schmidlapp's wife and his eldest daughter, Miss Emma, eighteen years old, lost their lives in a collision on the Missouri Pacific road near Kansas City on Feb. 20, 1900. They were on their way to Florida, accompanied by Mr. Schmidlapp and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Balke. Mrs. Schmidlapp was instantly killed. The daughter lived sixteen hours. Mr. Schmidlapp and his wife's mother were seriously injured.

While the family was imprisoned in the burning wreck Emma Schmidlapp continually cried out to the rescuers working to extricate her, "Don't mind me; get papa and mamma out first." These words of the heroic girl were inscribed upon a plate on her coffin.

Miss Charlotte Schmidlapp, the only remaining daughter, met her death in an automobile accident near Arles, France, on Sept. 20, 1906.

THE VALUE OF PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE

Personal knowledge is the winning factor in the culminating contests of this competitive age and when of ample character it places its fortunate possessor in the front ranks of

The Well Informed of the World.

A vast fund of personal knowledge is really essential to the achievement of the highest excellence in any field of human effort.

A Knowledge of Forms, Knowledge of Functions and Knowledge of Products are all of the utmost value and in questions of life and health when a true and wholesome remedy is desired it should be remembered that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., is an ethical product which has met with the approval of the most eminent physicians and gives universal satisfaction, because it is a remedy of Known Quality, Known Excellence and Known Component Parts and has won the valuable patronage of millions of the Well Informed of the world, who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual use that it is the first and best of family laxatives, for which no extravagant or unreasonable claims are made.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent family laxative. As its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well Informed of the world to be the best we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of—Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects, always note, when purchasing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, whether you call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

The board of trustees are making the annual current expense canvass at this time and are meeting with a very favorable response. Twelve hundred and fifty-nine dollars has already been secured of the $2,100 necessary. The fact that it cost $6 more per member to provide the many privileges and carry on the variety of work that the Association does than the membership costs, is the explanation for the necessity for public support in carrying on this work.

No canvass was made last year. This accounts for the extra deficit this year. It is hoped to clean up the total deficit before the close of the fiscal year ending March 31. Gifts for this work are ranging all the way from $10 to $100.

The last number of the entertainment course in Taylor Hall will occur next Monday night, Charles R. Taggart, entertainer, is the attraction. It does not seem to be generally known that this course was not managed by the Association, although unfortunately the Y. M. C. A. received much of the blame for some mistakes that were made. The only part the Association had in it was to rent their hall to a private party for the course.

If a course is given next year the Y. M. C. A. will have complete control of it. An effort will be made to secure some of the best talent in the country.

The Sunday Afternoon club will meet tomorrow in the reading room for an open discussion of the practical applications of the Transfiguration, "A great evidence of the Hereafter." Have we other sight than with our eyes? are some of the interesting questions that will come up for discussion. All men are welcome. Session begins at 4 o'clock.

Mr. Jones, returned missionary from India, will speak to the Boys' club at 2:30 on "The Boys of India." Mr. Jones has many interesting stories from this far-away country and a big crowd of boys is expected.

We regret to announce the resignation of our efficient assistant secretary, Mr. A. F. Cornell. Comment on this will appear in Monday's paper.

ELECTRICIANS STRIKE WORK

Great City of Paris Paralyzed by the Unexpected Move.

CANDLES LIGHT BOULEVARDS

Theaters Forego Performances and Department Stores, Newspaper Offices, Cafes and Other Plants Inconvenienced Friday Night—Strikers Demand Fulfillment of Promises.

Paris, March 9.—Friday evening a sudden and practically unanimous strike on the part of the army of electricians in this city resulted in the almost complete paralysis of the city by the time night had fallen. The inconvenience was very great. A number of theaters had to forego their performances, several of the evening newspapers were unable to get out their editions, and the great department stores were hurriedly emptied. The strikers demand the fulfillment of the promises to improve their condition which they claim were made to them last July. Many of the great department stores of Paris rely entirely upon electricity for lighting and heating. The prefecture of police, the buildings of the various ministries and the public institutions also were without lights, and even the Elysee palace was temporarily thrown into darkness. The senate and the chamber of deputies are provided with gas pipes and were therefore able to get light and go on with their business. The strikers voted to continue the strike until all their claims were granted.

The boulevards were practically in darkness except for the glimmering of a few gas jets. Only the Avenue de l'Opera and a small section of the Champs Elysees were illuminated by electricity. Cafes and restaurants presented weird pictures with flaming candles on all the tables. Only the "Parisien" appeared in its full size. It possesses its own electric plant. The managers of all the other morning papers did not see their way to getting out other than two or four-page papers, set up by hand and printed on improvised presses.

The company that supplies electricity was recently accorded concessions by the municipal council, and it now refuses to carry out certain resolutions passed by that body under which the electrical workers are granted an eight-hour workday and old-age pensions. These stipulations are not written in the contract with the city, but it was understood that they would be granted.

The strikers number 1,300 highly skilled workmen, and it will be almost impossible to replace them. As a rule the men ceased work quietly, but in some instances they extinguished the fires of the central stations, which it will require 48 hours to get going again, and in a few cases they removed certain portions of the electrical apparatus, which it will require at least a week to replace. Boulevards of Paris that are without gas lamps were patrolled by policemen bearing torches.

GUTTED BY FIRE.

Printing House in New York Suffers $300,000 Loss.

New York, March 9.—The four-story building occupied by William Green, a printer, from whose presses the Smart Set and Town Topics are printed, was burned, causing a loss of about $300,000. Seventy-five girls were working in the place when the fire was discovered on the fourth floor. All escaped without injury. The plant was located on West Forty-third street, and the fire was in dangerous proximity to gas tanks of the Consolidated Gas company.

Provides For Wage Increase.

Cleveland, O., March 9.—It was announced that an agreement had been reached between Assistant General Manager D. C. Moon of the Lake Shore railroad and Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, respecting wages of the engineers in the employ of the Lake Shore. The agreement, which is to be submitted to a committee for ratification here next Monday, will provide for an increase of wages for the engineers ranging from 16 to 18 per cent. The increase will amount to a total of $100,000 a year.

Great Northern Wreck.

Grand Forks, N. D., March 9.—Great Northern passenger train No. 2 was wrecked near Gjata. Two passengers are reported killed, W. C. Andrews of St. Paul and a man named Langer of Crookston. Five are reported injured.

Paper Mill Burns.

BUCKEYE BRIEFS.

Living Synopsis of Ohio Happenings.

Cleveland, O., March 9.—Repulsed by the woman with whom he was madly in love, Henry De Burt, a prominent contractor fired a bullet into his head while standing in the doorway of the woman's home. De Burt was removed to a hospital in a dying condition. In De Burt's trunk were found many letters from the object of his affections, Mrs. Florence Patterson, but it appeared that recently she had discarded him. She answered a call to her door, but seeing De Burt, she closed it in his face. In an instant a shot rang out, and Mrs. Patterson opened the door again to find the man lying in a pool of blood with a bullet wound in the temple. Mrs. Patterson, it is said, has been separated from her husband, and she is not widely known here.

Charges Discrimination.

Columbus, O., March 9.—After demanding a guarantee that at least five cars a day be shipped, the Baltimore & Ohio railroad refused to furnish more than half the necessary cars, according to a complaint filed with the state railroad commission by the Nimschilling Coal and Mineral company, which recently opened a coal mine south of Canton. Discrimination in the distribution of cars is alleged. The complainant avers that it has lost through incorrect rates made by the railroad, and that in several instances a greater rate is charged for a short haul than for a longer distance over the same route.

Jamestown Appointments.

Columbus, O., March 9.—The following appointments were made by the Ohio Jamestown exposition commission: Mrs. A. C. Stewart, Cincinnati, stenographer; Miss Blanch F. Cadot, Toledo, matron; Dorris Randall, Medina, check boy; James Sweetman, Circleville, messenger; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Howard, colored, Columbus, janitor and janitress respectively. These persons will be stationed at the Ohio building during the exposition. The date for Ohio day was not selected.

Plan to End Strike.

Portsmouth, O., March 9.—W. B. Fitzgerald, the union leader, has submitted a proposition that the streetcar men return to work and take up their differences, and upon failing to agree within 30 days to submit the matter to three disinterested people, one chosen by the company, one by the employees, and the third by both. President Levi D. York of the company is now considering this, and upon his answer depends the question of settlement.

Englishman Defeated.

Toledo, O., March 9.—Johnny Billeter of Toledo, champion lightweight catch-as-catch-can wrestler of the United States, defeated Walter Morrison, champion of England, in two straight falls, for the championship of the world, at the Empire theater here. Billeter won the first fall in 28 minutes and 40 seconds, and took the second in 11 minutes and 20 seconds.

Major Fisher Injured.

Canton, O., March 9.—Major M. O. Fisher of the commissary department of the O. N. G., was seriously and perhaps fatally injured by an explosion of burning wood alcohol in the cellar of his drug store. Major Fisher was burned about the face and hands and was struck in the breast by a piece of the barrel, and it is thought received internal injuries.

Girl's Fatal Fall.

Cincinnati, O., March 9.—Clara Buschman, daughter of Dr. Buschman, was killed by a fall down the elevator shaft of the Mercantile building on Walnut street. She uttered no cry as she fell, and to those who saw the accident the body, as it passed the elevator openings, seemed merely a bundle of clothing.

Debate Won by State.

Columbus, O., March 9.—By unanimous decision of the judges, Ohio State university defeated the University of Illinois in the annual debate. Illinois took the negative of the question: "Resolved, that the federal government should levy a progressive inheritance tax, its constitutionality being admitted."

Organized First Regiment.

Sunbury, O., March 9.—Colonel A. W. Lawson, who organized and commanded the Third Ohio Volunteer Infantry, the first regiment from Ohio to be mustered into federal service during the civil war and the first to go to the front, died here, aged 80.

Raisuli Escaped.

Tangier, March 9.—Raisuli is reported to have escaped from the stronghold of the Ben-larous tribe, where he had taken refuge, and to have gone to some practically inaccessible mountains, where he is gathering a large following from the turbulent tribes. The sultan's forces are said to have begun an attack on the Ben-larous headquarters.

Frisco Hotel Burns.

San Francisco, March 9.—A fire in the Standard hotel, in Third street, caused a loss of $30,000 and endangered the lives of 150 lodgers. Many of the inmates were forced to flee in their sleeping apparel, but all are believed to have escaped in safety. The fire was confined to the hotel building.

BIG POLITICIAN UNDER ARREST

Abraham Ruef Located at a Resort Near San Francisco.

WANTED IN SUPERIOR COURT

Submits Gracefully as Possible to the Officers and Is Taken to the City in an Automobile—Attorney in the Case Sentenced For Alleged Contempt of Court.

San Francisco, March 9.—Abraham Ruef, the local politician, who for three days has been in hiding to evade an order of arrest issued by Superior Judge Dunne, was taken into custody at the Trocadero, a secluded suburban resort near the ocean beach. The arrest was made by W. J. Biggy, elisor of Judge Dunne's court, and Detective Burns, who is aiding Assistant District Attorney Heney in the work of prosecuting alleged municipal grafters. Ruef submitted as gracefully as possible to arrest and was brought to the city in an automobile. His custody stopped for an hour at the office of Mr. Heney while Ruef was left in the automobile under guard. He was later taken to a hotel. It is said his captors declined to take him to jail for the night on account of the intimate political and friendly relations existing between the sheriff and the prisoner.

Samuel M. Shortridge, attorney of record for Ruef, incurred a severe rebuke from Judge Dunne during an examination by Assistant District Attorney Heney into the incompetency of Coroner Walsh, appointed by the court as a substitute for the disqualified Sheriff O'Neil, to "locate and arrest" the indicted politician. Shortridge persisted in an effort to enter objection to a question put by Heney, and would not be silenced by the court, who finally adjudged him guilty of contempt and sentenced him to 24 hours' imprisonment in the county jail. Shortridge, however, escaped immediate incarceration by applying to the district court of appeals for a writ of habeas corpus, on the ground that no contempt had been committed. The merits of this controversy will be argued before Justices Cooper, Hall and Kerrigan. In the meantime Shortridge is at liberty on his own recognizance.

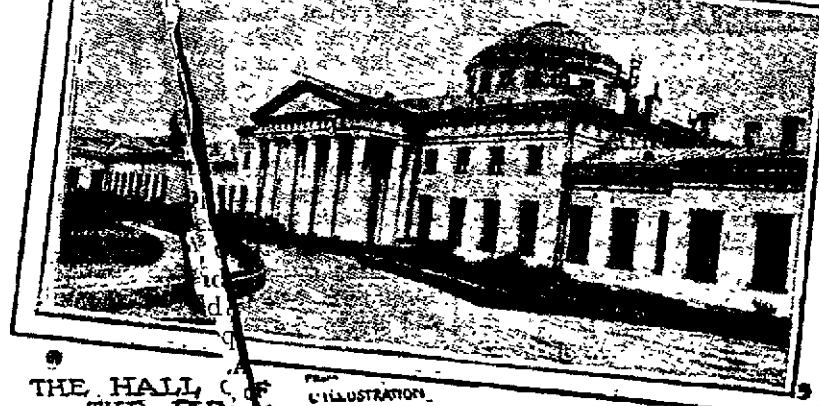

HERRICK

Effecting Great Light and Power Merger in Colorado.

Denver, Colo., March 9.—Negotiations for the purpose of consolidating the Central Colorado Power company, capitalized at $22,000,000, and the Northern Colorado Power company, capitalized at $10,000,000, are being carried forward by Myron T. Herrick, former governor of Ohio; Thomas F. Walsh, Simon Guggenheim and others interested in the two companies. Should the negotiations be successful, the combination, it is announced, will be capitalized at $50,000,000, and will supply electric light and power to almost three-fourths of the state of Colorado. Mr. Herrick said that the Central Colorado Power company, which was organized last November, will immediately place $9,000,000 in Colorado for the purpose of carrying out some of its plans.

Bills Affect Japanese.

Sacramento, Cal., March 9.—The senate unanimously passed two bills bearing on the Japanese situation. One bill limits the age of admittance of all children when first entering the primary schools to 19 years, except with the consent of superintendents of schools, boards of education and boards of trustees, who may grant older children the privilege of entering primary grades for the first time. The bill applies with equal force to all children, regardless of color or race, and amends the present statute authorizing the establishment of separate schools for Asiatics and others by including the word "Japan." The other bill passed the senate without a dissenting vote. It provides for the expression of the will and sentiment of the voters of California at the next election on the question of Asiatic immigration. A place is provided on the ballot where voters can vote for or against "Asiatic immigration."

An immense crowd assembled, being kept some distance from the palace.

Before the meeting a solemn Te Deum was celebrated by the metropolitan, Antonius, assisted by two episcopal members of the Douma, bishop Plato and Bishop Eulogius. The metropolitan delivered an address in the course of which he made a sharp appeal for peace and concord.

The bill applies with equal force to all children, regardless of color or race, and amends the present statute authorizing the establishment of separate schools for Asiatics and others by including the word "Japan." The other bill passed the senate without a dissenting vote. It provides for the expression of the will and sentiment of the voters of California at the next election on the question of Asiatic immigration. A place is provided on the ballot where voters can vote for or against "Asiatic immigration."

First Bolt.

Parsons, Kan., March 9.—At a meeting of representatives of the order of the conductors and trainmen of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway, held here, it was voted to strike in case the officials of that system refuse the men's demand for an increase in wages. This action marks the first bolt of any of the 49 roads which took part in the recent conference at Chicago.

Hearst Ill.

New York, March 9.—William R. Hearst is seriously ill at his home, and his engagements for some time have been canceled. The editor's illness was made known when the Fortieth assembly district Brooklyn independence League club canceled a meeting at which he was to have spoken. Mr. Hearst recently contracted a severe cold.

SUGAR TRUST

Named Defendant in Suit Asking For Forty Millions.

New York, March 9.—A suit asking for $10,000,000 actual and $30,000,000 tentative damages was commenced in the United States circuit court by the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining company against the American Sugar Refining company, H. O. Havemeyer, its president; John C. Parsons, the corporation's general counsel, and G. E. Kissel, W. D. Robinson, G. L. Trigg and M. P. Weiner. The action grows out of the failure of Adolph Segal in Philadelphia, whose bankruptcy, involving millions, was one of the financial sensations of the last year, coupled as it was with the death of Bank President Frank S. Hinde of Philadelphia. The complaint alleges that the defendants, in violation of the Sherman antitrust act, conspired to prevent the plaintiff corporation from engaging in the refining of sugar, and actually did succeed in preventing it from operating its plant.

Poison in the Stomach.

New York, March 9.—An autopsy held by Coroner's Physician O'Hanlon disclosed that Leonidas Preston, a millionaire, who died suddenly at the Hotel Cumberland, had enough hydrocyanic poison in his stomach to kill six men. The coroner immediately reported the case to the police, and detectives were set to work upon several mysterious circumstances connected with the case. Mr. Preston was New York manager for the Timken Railroad Bearing Axle company and had an office in West Forty-sixth street. Mr. Preston died while telephoning to some business acquaintances. The hotel physician, who was called in when Mr. Preston succumbed, gave the opinion that death had been caused by a cerebral hemorrhage. Mr. Preston's wife told the coroner that Mr. Preston returned from a business trip to New Orleans two weeks ago, suffering from a severe attack of grip, complicated with bronchial troubles. Against the advice of his physician, Dr. Millet, he insisted upon transacting business.

Dun's Review.

New York, March 9.—R. G. Dun's Weekly Trade Review says: Depression in the stock market did not extend beyond Wall street, commodity prices ruling high and general business continuing vigorous. The traffic conditions have improved somewhat, increasing the distribution of merchandise, and spring sales of dry goods have equalled anticipations. Retail trade is good for the season. A few reports tell of conservatism regarding operations for the future due to high prices and tight money, but there is practical unanimity as to the activity of current trade. Renewed demand for bessemer iron from the leading interest indicates that it is unable to provide for the needs of the steel mills, and the distribution of the contract among many furnaces testifies to the good condition of order books, as no single concern could make the desired delivery.

To Probe Irregularities.

Washington, March 9.—Irregularities in the purchase of ink for the printing of greenbacks, gold certificates and postage stamps are being investigated by United States Attorney Baker, on information furnished him by the secret service agents of the treasury department. It is stated that from 1898 to 1905 the government paid between 45 and 55 cents a pound for ink for the bureau of engraving and printing. Since that time the price has been 12 cents. Had the present price prevailed the government would have saved between $500,000 and $1,000,000, according to estimates which have been made by officials. Whether the transaction involves a breach of any law and who is responsible are questions which Mr. Baker is considering. He will not discuss the case.

Suffrage Bill Lost.

London, March 9.—The bill to extend the right of suffrage to women was defeated in the house of commons, where it was talked to death without coming to a vote. The supporters of the bill made a determined attempt to secure a vote, but the speaker declined to accept a motion of closure, and the sitting of the house was closed automatically. The bill is thus killed for the present session. The result was not surprising, even to the strongest sympathizers of the women's cause, realizing that the question was not ripe for legislation and that parliament was not in a position to deal with the question until it becomes a definite issue at a general election.

Kaiser Visits the Towers.

Berlin, March 9.—Emperor William carried a bouquet of roses and lilies to the United States embassy and presented it to Mrs. Tower, wife of the ambassador. His majesty also asked to see Mr. and Mrs. Towers' little daughters, gave them a lot of toys, and talked with them some time about their dolls and games.

THAW'S FAMILY AND HIS WIFE

Reports Current of Serious Estrangement Between Them.

SEPARATION PLANS ALLEGED

Howard Nesbit, Abraham Hummel and May Mackenzie to Be Called by the Prosecution—Alienists and Thaw Family Physicians Also to Testify.

New York, March 9.—A serious estrangement is alleged to exist between Harry Thaw's family and his wife. It is reported that the former desires to bring about a separation of the young couple in the event of a verdict acquitting Thaw of the charge of murder.

Howard Nesbit, brother of Mrs. Thaw, is quoted as saying: "The Countess of Yarmouth has said that she will not return to England until her brother and my sister have been separated. I did not know of this until my return from Pittsburgh last Sunday. As soon as I arrived here I went to the hotel Lorraine to warn my sister, but Mr. Delmas would not let me see her alone. I did not want any of the lawyers present while I talked to her, because I knew they would probably deny it. I am sure that if my sister knew of the plans which are being made against her she would assert herself at once, and not remain passive, as she has been so far."

It has also been a matter of comment that as two experts have declared Thaw to have been insane at the time of his marriage, the ceremony might be declared void and annulled. Under this rule the will and codicil, in which Mrs. Thaw is left the main portion of her husband's estate, are also void.

Just what Mr. Jerome intends to prove or will be allowed to prove on rebuttal remains as deep a mystery as ever. The prosecutor himself is probably at a loss to know how far he can go in attacking Evelyn Thaw's story and in adducing evidence tending to contradict and discredit her. His plan of campaign may be entirely changed at any time by an adverse decision from Justice Fitzgerald. Mr. Delmas for the defense undoubtedly will make Mr. Jerome's progress difficult by continued objections. The rules of evidence invoked in the Thaw case differ materially from those in any recent murder trial in this jurisdiction, and it has been evident from the first that the attorneys on both sides have been feeling their way cautiously.

The district attorney had May Mackenzie notified to be in court Monday prepared to go upon the witness stand. Miss Mackenzie has been under subpoena by the state ever since the trial began. She is the intimate friend of Thaw's wife, and during the first stages of the trial the two were inseparable. Lately, however, Miss Mackenzie has been seen but seldom about the criminal courts building. There is no intimation that the two young women have quarreled. It is also said that Attorney Jerome has summoned Mrs. J. J. Caine of Boston, who already has testified for the defense. Among the other known witnesses for the state are Drs. Bingham of Pittsburgh and Deemar of Kittanning, Pa., the Thaw and Copley family physicians. The defense originally summoned these physicians, but Mr. Jerome has publicly stated that the doctors can give very important testimony which the defense has failed to develop. The prosecutor has stated in court that he will call as an expert Dr. Allan McLane Hamilton, who at first was in the employ of Thaw's attorneys, but left the case when Thaw dismissed the firm of Black, Olcott, Gruber & Bonyne, who were retained in his behalf by his mother's legal advisers. Drs. Austin, Flint, Carlos McDonald and William Mahon have been in the employ of the state ever since the Thaw trial began, and have attended every session. They are prepared to testify at a moment's notice.

Mr. Jerome undoubtedly will again summon Abraham Hummel, a lawyer, to the stand to testify as to the affidavit Evelyn Nesbit is alleged to have signed charging Thaw with cruelties because she "would not tell lies" about Stanford White. The prosecutor attempted to introduce this testimony by interrupting young Mrs. Thaw's narrative, but the testimony was barred at the time. Mr. Jerome believes that upon rebuttal Justice Fitzgerald will allow him a much wider latitude than was granted on cross-examination.

Howard Nesbit will be called to the stand to testify that his sister told him Thaw had treated her cruelly while abroad in 1903 because she again would not tell lies about Stanford White. Mr. Jerome hopes by the brother to corroborate the testimony he expects to elicit from Abraham Hummel, the latter being under indictment at the present time for alleged subornation of perjury in the Dodge-Morse divorce tangle.

The company was then inspected for the first time by Col. Graham who also following inspection gave a splendid talk to the company and some very beneficial instructions. Captain Courtney also made a report of Licking county company No. 121, and offered several encouraging remarks for our company. After inspection and speech making, all repaired to the banquet room where the committee on lunch had prepared in camp style a very beautiful supper consisting of corn bread, milk, gingerbread, baked beans, celery, pickles, apples, cider and all trimmings that go with such a splendid supper. All departed at a late hour feeling the meeting one of great good to Johnstown Company No. 16.—Johnstown Independent.

MORGAN WANTS MORE CHILD LABOR LAWS

Columbus, O., March 9.—State Shop and Building Inspector J. W. Morgan filed his annual report for 1906 with Governor Harris Friday. In child labor legislation he says that Ohio leads the states. There were 311 prosecutions for the violation of these laws during the year, resulting in fines aggregating $4,557. The inspector is opposed to allowing any discretion to employers in giving work to children where the parents are poor and must have the children's wages. Indeed, he suggests a school pension law by which in such cases the equivalent of the child's wages may be paid out of the public treasury for the parents' support and the child sent to school instead of to a factory to work.

BEN TOOK NEWS AS IF HE WERE A WOODEN MAN

Columbus, O., March 9.—Guard Cullison, who is a Coshocton county man, has been detailed to take Ben Dickerson the slayer of Catherine Hughes, back to the Coshocton county jail. The order was received to take him back to Coshocton county Thursday, but the clerk of the Circuit court of the Cleveland district from whom it had been received, had neglected to sign the order and was at once notified by phone.

"We are looking for the signed papers on every mail," said Warden Gould Friday. "That's all there is to it. We have been ordered to send Dickerson to Coshocton county to await there in the county jail the fight now on in the Supreme court, or until his new trial starts, if granted, finally."

"Ben was just as wooden as usual when we told him of it. He didn't show any more enthusiasm than a post and said he had nothing to say; that the matter was in the hands of his attorneys. We asked him if he was going to ask for a change of venue, and he said that was entirely up to his attorneys."

Cornelius and Davis, two other murderers, were seated at a table playing "solitaire" when Dickerson was told of the Circuit court's action. White, the murderer from Lebanon, was studying a catalogue of books in the Catholic library. Dr. Haugh, the Dayton murderer, was lying in bed, and so was Royalty Fowler of Dayton.

The release of Dickerson Saturday alleviated the congested condition of the annex. His bed will be removed. The annex has been so crowded that one cot had to be placed over another.

The attorney defending Dickerson resent the implication that his return to the county was made at his instance. They would rather have him remain at Columbus since his presence there would be of no benefit until a new trial is actually started. They did not rise in the matter, and if they had they could not have done anything effective since the law specifically provides just what the course of procedure must be.

CAMP BRIDGE SUN CEASED TO SHINE

Camp Bridge, O., March 9.—The Camp Bridge Daily Sun, afternoon independent publication, is no more. Friday morning Constable W. A. Albright took possession of the office, as the result of an action brought by the Camp Bridge Building company. The latter some days ago gave A. J. Lykes, proprietor of the paper, notice to vacate on account of non-payment of rent. Vacation was not made voluntarily and the removal was made otherwise yesterday.

During the last year or more failure to pay the daily publication of the Sun has been quite frequent. The proprietor and owner, A. J. Lykes, it will be recalled, was injured in an automobile accident, more than a year ago, and from this he has never recovered. On account of this the property has deteriorated until suspension of publication.

On October 17 last Asa H. Baxter assumed control of the Sun, but resold the property A. J. Lykes on February 11. In order to satisfy a mortgage Mr. Baxter holds on the Sun, the machinery and type have been stored beneath the Baxter job printer in the Masonic temple, for the present. The Sun was 11 years old, having been founded by S. M. Johnson now of Fairview. At that time it was a morning paper, but Mr. Lykes faced it in the afternoon field upon its assuming control of it.

SIMPLE FROCK FOR LITTLE GIRL

The design shown in the accompanying plate is practical in almost any material, the model being in light blue linen, the buttonholed edges of the sleeve caps and about the yoke being done in white wash cotton. The little garment was made in one piece, the bodice and skirt being joined under a strap belt of the linen stitched. Pearl buttons were used on either side of the strap across the front of the belt. The gumpie and undersleeves were of white tucked mule and lace.

BOWSER'S WIFE BOSS

Things Happen When Head of Household Starts to Criticise.

THEY HAVE A SQUARE TALK.

Feminine Part of the Family Lays Down Law in a Way to Startle Her Husband, Who Shivers While It Lasts.

"I could find you one with two holes in it if I should look around. Why don't you say that I burn gas in the doorway to help send you to the poorhouse?"

"You do, and you know you do!" he exclaimed.

"You had better have your head examined. Two weeks ago you were out to a club when I went to bed. I don't know at what hour you came in, but when I came downstairs next morning I found three burners blazing away. A week ago I went to bed and left you reading. You followed after an hour and left three burners illuminating the house. Don't talk about wasting gas to me."

"What! I mustn't talk to you! By thunder, woman, have you gone crazy? Do you know who I am?"

Having a Square Talk.

"I know you very well, sir," said Mrs. Bowser in answer, "and we are having a square talk. You were finding fault the other day about how fast the furnace coal went, and you threw out a hint that I must be selling a portion of it. Such an idea is nonsense, and you know it. You alone are to blame. You come home and dive down cellar the first thing and shovel a quarter of a ton of coal in. You think you know all about running a furnace, but as a matter of fact, you know nothing at all. I want you to keep away from it for the rest of the winter."

"You—you are talking this to me?" he asked as he sat down and moistened his dry lips with his tongue.

"Yes, sir, straight to you. The other night you found a tramp at the door, and because I would not give him anything to eat you went on for an hour about my stony heart. I want to hear nothing more in that line. Cut off your cigars and wine and leave the money in the house to be given out to tramps. I shall give or not, just as I elect."

"But I am telling you"—

"Never mind what you are telling. You have always meddled more or less with the help problem. I want you to stop it. I know more in a minute about managing a girl than you know in a year. When I fall with one you may butt in."

Why the Hired Girls Quit.

"But you never have any pity for them."

"They are not working for pity, but for cold cash, the same as you are. We have had five girls quit us in the last year, and it was all owing to your hen huzzy ways. Each one has told me so. They don't want and won't have you lollypopping around the kitchen and telling how sorry you are that they can't be seated in the parlor playing on the piano. I say I want you to quit it."

Mr. Bowser turned as white as snow, and his knees gave under him as he rose up.

"And this finding fault with your meals has got to come to a sudden stop," continued Mrs. Bowser. "If you don't like what I provide for the table, give me more money and we'll live on the rarest luxuries. I have only so much per week to buy with, and if I spend a dime extra there is a howl from you. You must cut it out. There are boarding houses in plenty down the street."

"And this is Mrs. Bowser, and she is talking to me?" he gasped as he looked at the cat and then around the room to see if he had possibly made any mistake. There was a moment's silence, and then Mrs. Bowser continued:

"You were speaking about putting in two evenings a week at your clubs. You never attend one of them that you don't come home at least $5 worse off in pocket, and on some occasions you have dropped as high as fifteen at poker. In the first place you don't know the game, and in the next we are going to the theater one night per week during the rest of the season. You can cut out one of your clubs."

Looked a Bit Scared.

"Mrs. Bowser," he whispered as he looked a bit scared, "am I Mr. Bowser?"

"You surely are."

"The Bowser who runs things?"

"No, sir. You are the Bowser whose wife runs things. There's a new deal on hand. Perhaps you had better take a walk and think things over. You look as if your mind was all tied up in knots."

Mr. Bowser walked down the hall like one in a dream and put on his hat and overcoat. Then he went out and walked up and down. Men spoke to him, and boys threw snowballs at him from across the street, but with lowered eyes and bent head he continued to walk. The snow crunched under his feet, the north wind blew and the dead limbs of the shade trees rattled against each other over his head, but he walked and walked and whispered to himself:

"If I am Mr. Bowser, what am I doing here? If I am not, then what has become of him and who the devil am I?"

And the north wind sighed and moaned and seemed to echo the words, "Who the devil am I?" M. QUAD.

The Three Graces.

"I found a thousand clothespins!" he yelled. "That was one of the things I was going to speak to you about this evening—your criminal waste and extravagance."

"Then save your breath. You found two broken clothespins that some boy had thrown at our cat. You can carry them around in your hand pocket as mementos. That cigar on the mantel cost 15 cents. That would buy four or five dozen clothespins. Go out and scuff some more if you will."

"But it wasn't two weeks ago that I got a new oatmeal dish, and yesterday I found it with a hole in it."

"Did you take a pickax and make the hole? That dish was bought three months ago and is all right yet. What you found was the old one. Perhaps

At the End of His Rope.

"Certainly. But you have come to the end of your rope at last. The other morning I saw you scuffling around in the snow in the back yard. After hunting for half an hour—"

FAITH HOPE CHARITY

GRAFT IN ENGLAND.

Perhaps Not So Great in Extent as Here, but Yet Well Started.

The Operation of Public Utilities by Public Officials Has Placed Them Under Such Temptations as They Have Never Before Known—Why They Are Not Exposed.

There is nothing about the visiting American in England more amusing to the native than the American's conviction that there is no graft in English municipal politics.

Frederick C. Howe, the magazineist who writes so much in praise of municipal ownership, the British form of socialism, admits that there is graft in England, but says it is all practiced by the lords and millionaires. No graft, he declares, has crept in through the municipal ownership and operation of public utilities.

"Graft in England may not be of such magnitude as in the United States," said an Englishman who is well known in public life, but is neither a lord nor a millionaire. "But it exists here as certainly as it does in America. It is carried on along similar lines, and, fostered by the opportunities which the rising tide of municipal trading affords, it is rapidly growing in magnitude. It is owing to our overstrict libel laws and to the fact that immunity may not be granted under English law to one who confesses to accepting a bribe that the corruption now so well known to exist in our municipal governments has not been effectively exposed long ago."

"The newspapers know all about it, and they know who are the grafters, but they do not dare to expose the situation, and until the proper statutes are enacted it will be almost impossible to punish grafters through the courts."

"Not so very long ago a certain speech was reported in one of the London newspapers. The speechmaker was indignant for neither the subject matter of the speech nor the circumstances under which it was delivered were creditable to him, and he brought a suit for damages on the ground that the libel laws had been violated. It was not claimed that the speech was incorrectly reported; indeed, it was admitted that the report was substantially without error, yet nevertheless heavy damages were awarded to the plaintiff on the grounds that the plaintiff's reputation had been injured and that the publisher could not show that the publication of the report was of benefit to the public."

"A little longer ago it was suspected that members of the council of London borough of Poplar had been accepting bribes from contractors who were furnishing materials and supplies. Detectives were put upon the case, and the facts were run down. Certain of the contractors and councilmen, confronted with these facts, confessed and promised to go upon the stand in court and testify to the truth. In due time one of the guilty men took the stand as promised and told the story as agreed."

"He was immediately arrested as a criminal under the law as its stands and slated for an early trial. This chilled the enthusiasm of the others who had promised to confess, and they changed their minds promptly and irrevocably. As the prosecution was thus left without witnesses, the investigation was brought to an abrupt close."

"Now, the installation and operation of tramways, electric light works, gas works, etc., involves the letting of many large contracts by men who hold places in the municipal councils, not because they are fitted by training and experience to let such contracts, but because they have succeeded through petty politics in getting elected. They receive no pay for their services and in many cases are men without financial resources of any consequence."

"There are contractors in England as well as in America who are not above getting contracts through bribery, and there are council members of the grade I have mentioned who are no more able to resist the temptation to be bribed in England than they would be in America. If it would not sound unpatriotic, I might go so far as to say that since municipal trading has so increased the magnitude of municipal contracts Englishmen in many cities have been known to seek election to the councils in order to have the chance to be bribed."

"We could today make exposures of graft in London and more than one other English city that would startle American readers even, accustomed as they are to reading graft stories, if we could only give immunity to whoever might be either scared or reasoned into confessing the truth. In other words, municipal ownership and operation of public utilities in England are rapidly honeycombing all our municipal governments with graft."

"The law makes an exception with regard to election bribery charges, and immunity may lawfully be promised to those whose testimony is needed to convict the guilty. This has enabled us to unearth many election irregularities, as the readers of English newspapers know very well, and eventually we are going to be able to unearth the facts with regard to bribery and jobbery in English municipal administration. We are well aware, however, that it will probably be quite as difficult to job as it was thirty odd years ago in America to unearth the frauds perpetrated by New York's notorious Tweed ring."

Dyspepsia

The stomach is in far greater danger from uric acid than any other organ; hence, dyspepsia is a most common ailment. Most people who suffer from its early symptoms foolishly neglect it. You will surely regret it if you neglect it.

Uric acid is always the cause. All through our stomach membrane, is a network of tiny blood vessels. When you eat heavy or improper food, these little blood vessels congest so that the blood stops flowing through them, and the uric acid—always in the blood—crystallizes in the congested veins, forming sharp, jagged grains like sand. These coarsely irritate the nerves, causing pain in the stomach.

Artificial digestive, such as compounds of chloroform, soda and the like, will NEVER cure stomach trouble. You MUST clear the uric acid sand out of the blood vessels.

This is the ONLY way. LIFE PLANT does this! LIFE PLANT is provided especially by Nature to wash out accumulated uric acid from every part of the body. Through this power, LIFE PLANT will restore your stomach to perfect condition, so that it will be a joy for you to eat and live. Our files are full of unsolicited letters, proving this. Read just one:

"I have been troubled with indigestion for years. Last year, the joints of my right hand became much swollen and very painful with rheumatism. Life Plant was recommended, and after taking three bottles I have no more trouble with my stomach. The pain from rheumatism is gone and the joints almost in normal condition."

EDITOR CULLINAN WAS VINDICATED

Verdict of New Lexington Jury So Considered and Plaintiff Will Pay the Costs.

In a news dispatch from New Lexington, printed in Friday's Advocate, it was erroneously stated that Editor P. M. Cullinan of the New Lexington Herald, against whom a jury returned a verdict of one cent, in a $10,000 damage suit, would have to pay the costs of the action.

In fact the verdict was a practical vindication of Mr. Cullinan, and he will not have to pay one cent of the costs, which will fall on O. N. Danison, the plaintiff.

This is covered by Section 5349 of the Revised Statutes which in part reads as follows:

"In all actions for libel, slander, malicious prosecution, assault, assault and battery, false imprisonment, criminal conversation or seduction, actions for nuisance, or against a justice of the peace for misconduct in office, when the damage assessed is under five dollars, the plaintiff shall not recover the costs."

Railroad Conspiracy.

If you were a North Dakota farmer with your last year's wheat crop rotting on the ground because there were no cars to take it to an elevator, with no coal to burn and the thermometer 30 or 40 degrees below zero; if you were almost as dependent on the branch railroad which connects you with the outside world as a ship at sea is dependent upon its food supply and coal bunkers, and no trains came over this railroad; if you and your wife had to take shifts sitting up at night keeping a big fire going with wood or by burning your own grain and straw, you might not approach the difficulties which the northern winter brings to the railroads with a perfectly judicial and unimpassioned mind. Some of the North Dakota comments reprinted here may sound bizarre and frenzied but the conditions were extreme. The farmers may be pardoned for believing that they were the victims of a deliberate railroad conspiracy.

"It is not a snow blockade or car shortage that deprives us of a market for our grain," wrote a citizen of Litchville, North Dakota, to Collier's on February 12. "It is a deliberate strike of the railroads against the people, for some purpose not now apparent. The results are appalling. Millions of bushels of grain heating and rotting under the snow. We beg your assistance and help to end this intolerable condition."

EUTERPEAN WINS ANNUAL CONTEST

INTERESTING AND EXCITING EXERCISES BY DENISON'S LITERARY SOCIETIES.

Pitcher Chambers Visits Granville—M. P. Ashbrook Struck by a Stray Bullet.

Granville, March 9.—The annual contest of the two literary societies of Shepardson college, the Philomathean and Euterpean, to determine the supremacy of the two societies, was held on Friday night in Recital Hall. Great spirit has been shown by all the members of both societies and much work preparatory for the contest.

At the contest Friday night there was not only a large attendance of the members of the two societies but there was also a large attendance of the students of Denison university. The following program was given and Mrs. Kate Sheppard Hines was presiding officer.

Invocation—Dr. Baldwin.

Piano Solo—Marion Welant.

Original Story—"The Red, Red Rose," Euterpe.

Essay—"In the Laboratory," Euterpe.

Debate—Affirmative, Euterpe.

The hall was decorated in the society colors and presented a beautiful appearance. Both society songs and college songs were sung and the affair proved a most excitable as well as enjoyable one.

Boyd Chambers, Denison's former star pitcher, is spending a day or two in Granville with old friends. He has been at his home in Huntington, W. Va., ever since finishing up with Springfield last season, engaged in the furniture business with his uncle. He expects to be with Springfield again this season and next year will engage in teaching. He is just now recovering from a severe attack of the grip.

Two very interesting papers were given at the regular bi-meeting of the Denison Language Association Friday afternoon in Burton Hall. One was by Prof. W. A. Chamberlain on "Pastoratus and the Earliest German Immigration to America," and the other was by Prof. Warren H. Roberts on "Walt Whitman." The latter, especially, provoked a most breezy discussion. Both papers were highly commended.

Much interest is being aroused over the State in the Conference and Retreat to be held at Granville under the auspices of Denison University, April 1-4. Ministers from all over the state will be in attendance together with many distinguished representatives of theological seminaries. It will be of special interest to the ministerial students and to many others. Plans are being made for furnishing meals at the Shepardson dining hall for the guests. Dr. H. F. Stillwell, pastor of the First Baptist church of Cleveland and President of the Ohio Baptist Ministers Conference and Secretary A. S. Carman, representing Denison University, are preparing the program, and Prof. W. A. Chamberlain, W. A. Holmes and Mr. W. H. Fowle are the splendid committee on entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moorhead and two children, Harold and Minnie, who have been visiting relatives and friends here during the past week have returned to their home in Columbus.

Dr. T. L. Ketman of Chicago, district secretary of the American Baptist Publication society, will speak at the Baptist church Sunday morning. Dr. Kittman is a man of pleasing personality and is a very interesting speaker.

Dr. Henry Mullingford of Springfield, O., who has been visiting relatives here for the past week, returned home Friday night.

Miss Allie Williams of Columbus, is visiting friends in the village for a few days.

Mr. M. P. Ashbrook of this place met with a peculiar accident while at Shelby on Wednesday of this week. As he was in the act of crossing the street to take a B. & O. westbound train, he was struck on the leg by a bullet, fired from some unknown source, which so crippled him that he was obliged to return home. While

Why Do Country Boys Flock to Big Cities?

Most small towns are short of young men. As a rule there are plenty of agreeable girls who would not object to matrimony; there are plenty of old people and enough babies to go around. But the boy—oh, where is he?

The boy, the young man, has gone to the city, where he imagines there are opportunities. To him the old home town is dull and stupid. He sees no future for himself there. Both for social and financial considerations he rushes off to the great city. Very frequently he finds that he is lonelier there than at home—nearly always so; and even more frequently he finds that riches do not grow on ten story walls.

BUT STILL HE GOES TO THE CITY.

In going there the boy simply follows his daddy's dollars. For years his daddy and his mother and his big sister and his Aunt Mary Ann have been mailing their money to the big city for Mail Order bargains.

Result: Home merchants don't thrive, grass grows in the street, no jobs are to be had, no opening for a new business, and the young man goes to the city because it is a place where people have traded at home and built up their own community and provided opportunities for outsiders as well as for themselves.

IF YOU WANT TO KEEP YOUR BOY AT HOME BUILD UP YOUR TOWN SO THAT HE CAN BUILD UP HIS CAREER AMONG HIS HOME FOLKS.

the wound is not at all serious he will be unable to leave the house for some days. Mr. Ashbrook is Senior Counselor of the United Commercial Travelers and is well known all over Ohio.

WEST CARLISLE.

Services here were well attended, considering the inclemency of the weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Billman of Newark spent part of this week with friends here.

Mrs. Mary Cooper and niece, Miss Judith Preston, of Cooperdale, were in town on business, Tuesday.

Mr. George Preston of Coshocton visited friends here Tuesday.

Mr. Castner of Dresden was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. C. S. Gault, Thursday.

Messrs Mayo and Laurence Graham spent Wednesday night with Harvey Meek.

MR. B. W. KING MAY LOCATE HERE

NOTED PITTSBURGH LECTURER MUCH IMPRESSED WITH NEWARK.

And Would Like to Open a School of Voice Culture and Dramatic Instruction.

Byron W. King, lecturer, who is well known to Newark people, having addressed an audience at Taylor Hall some time ago, wants to locate his school of oratory here for the summer of 1907. He will be extended an invitation by the representative citizens of Newark, to bring his summer school to Newark and if he accepts the invitation, the school will not only advertise the city thoroughly but it will bring from 200 to 400 pupils here for a period of two months.

The Byron W. King School of Oratory, Elocution and Dramatic Culture in Pittsburgh, is noted over the middle west. The Pittsburgh school is in operation during the winter terms the same as any school or college. During the summer, Mr. King establishes a summer school or Chautauqua in some smaller town, usually in Pennsylvania. For some time the school has been established at Curwensville, Pa., where from two to four hundred students have been trained in oratory, drama and voice culture.

On Mr. King's recent visit to the city, he became acquainted with some of the leading citizens and was very much impressed with the city. To one of the number he expressed a willingness to locate his summer school here and the invitation mentioned above resulted.

He is particularly struck with the central location of the city and its excellent railroad facilities, particularly its traction lines.

It is the custom of the school to give entertainments during the time the institution is open. There are twelve talented instructors on the faculty.

APPEARING OLD

Acts as a Bar to Profitable Employment.

You cannot afford to grow old. In these days of strenuous competition it is necessary to maintain, as long as possible ones youthful appearance. It is impossible to do this without retaining a luxurious growth of hair.

The presence of Dandruff indicates the presence of a burrowing germ which lives and thrives on the roots of the hair until it causes total baldness.

Newbro's Herpicide is the only known destroyer of this pest, and it is as effective as it is delightful to use. Herpicide makes an elegant hair dressing as well as Dandruff cure.

ROAD HAS ASKED FOR A FRANCHISE

(Wayne Co. Democrat.)

The promoters of the Newark, Martinsburg & Mt. Vernon Traction Co. have asked the city of Wooster for the right to enter the city.

Monday night at the council meeting, Dr. Shrontz of Martinsburg, Edward Dever of Mt. Vernon and their attorney E. S. Wertz presented an application to the city council.

The company asks the right to construct all necessary switches, turnouts and to erect the necessary poles and wires to operate an electric railway.

The company has practically all of the right of way for its railroad from Newark to Loudonville. Actual work of construction is already begun at Newark, and it is hoped that the entire work will be finished before next fall from Newark through to Massillon, O.

The city council stands ready to grant any reasonable assistance to any new company that will build an electric interurban railroad.

The city has never recovered from the mistake that was made when the city did not secure the Cleveland, Akron & Columbus railroad when it was knocking at the doors of the city.

The present council and the citizens seem to want all the interurban railroads that will come to the city and about all that is wanted is the interests of the city safe guarded and some assurance that the roads will be built.
